Warning - Risk of Covid-19

Covid-19, often referred to as coronavirus, is an infectious disease that can result in serious and potentially fatal illness. There is a risk of the transmission of Covid-19 in any environment where people come together. This risk increases in enclosed spaces and with increased numbers of people. The World Health Organisation has advised that the elderly and those with underlying medical conditions are more vulnerable.

Upon entering, the University of Bolton Stadium you assume all risk associated with Covid-19 (unless in any way caused by the negligence of Live Nation). You also agree to:

- abide by all government guidance aimed at preventing the transmission of the virus (details of which can be accessed via the following links <https://www.gov.scot/coronavirus-covid-19/> and <https://www.gov.uk/coronavirus>); and
- follow all directions provided by staff members and set out in the signage within the venue.

You must not enter the venue if you believe that you may have been infected with Covid-19.

Failure to comply with these measures shall entitle Live Nation to eject you from the event.

If you have any questions, please get in touch with the vendor. Otherwise, please keep safe, look after each other and enjoy the show.

Live Nation shall be entitled to cancel any Event(s) at any time if required due to any government guidance/restrictions and the refund policy set out in the Event Terms and Conditions shall apply.
